

Index

A

account penetration strategies, 187–209 acknowledgment, of objections, 158 active listening skills, 3–4 administration
 account penetration and, 187–90, 204–5
 budgets and, 206
advocacy
 healthcare provider, 33 patient, 32–33
anger, as objection, 163, 164 appearance, 30, 37–45, 185 appointments, obtaining first, 211–19 assumption, of sale, 180 attitude, 87–92, 180
automatic responses, 109 avoidance, of objections, 173–74

B

behavior
 checklist of, 35–36
 flirtatious, 65
 personal conduct and, 47–66 standards of, 30–34
benefits
 emphasis of, 140–41, 144–45 of medical sales persons, 219 responsiveness to, 201–2 body jewelry, 43–45
bonuses, 6–7
breathing, 86
budgets
 economic considerations and, 221–33 knowledge regarding, 205–6 business, medicine as, 17

C

capital budgets, 205–6
champions
 account penetration and, 192–93
 role of, 231–32
 as support, 226
change, customers and, 105–9 clinical background. See expertise closed-ended questions, 133–34 closing, of presentations, 177–86 clothing, 38–42
coaches
 account penetration and, 192–93
 as support, 226
coincidental meetings, 213–15 commissions, 7–8 commitments, importance of, 72–73 committees, account penetration and, 190–91, 195–99, 204–5 communications, 31

community, hospitals as, 15–17 compensation. See income competency acquisition of, 101–3
 importance of, 28–29
competition
 account penetration and, 206
 as motivation, 113–14
 outworking and outsmarting, 235–42
 social networking and, 250 compliance considerations, 18
 social networking and, 247–48
conduct, 47–66
confidence
 as attitude, 91
 authentic, 85–86
 false, 84–85
 self- (see self-confidence) confirmation, of objections, 160 conflict of interest, 59 conflict resolution, 97, 98–99, 134–36 as focus, 232–33
consistency, 97
consolidation, as benefit, 202 consultants, sales people as, 129 contracts, as benefit, 201 conversation control of, 131–32
 keeping prospect involved in, 128–29 presentations as, 117–18, 121–22 correspondence, 185
cost considerations, decision making and, 17 customer loyalty, 18–19 customer satisfaction, 22 customers basic relationships with, 51–52 change and, 105–9
 checking in with, 145
 focusing on, 109–10
 friends as, 52–64
 importance of, 99–101
 knowledge of, 225–26
 objections and, 155–57
 relationships with (see relationships) social networking with, 245–47

D

data
 "dumping" of, 139
 healthcare professionals and, 180–81
 objections and, 171–72
 rules for use of, 150–52 using, 150
decision making

Index

account penetration and, 206–8
as skill, 4–5
defensive medicine, 107 delivery of services, 73–74
as benefit, 202
Department of Justice. See Food and Drug Administration departments, account penetration and, 187–90 dialogue. See conversation diplomacy, 32
disclosure, 76–77
doctors. See healthcare professionals dress, 38–42

E

ease of use, as benefit, 201 economic considerations, 221–33, 254 education
account penetration and, 205
as investment, 239–41
medical sales and, 19–20
ego, healthcare providers and, 109–10 e-mail use, 216–17
embarrassment, as objection, 164, 166 emotional reactions handling of, 168–70
intelligence and, 170
to objections, 154–55
as objections, 163–67
empathy, 30, 98
employees, strategies for getting past, 211–19 environment. See work environment equipment, as investment, 239–41 ethical considerations, 67–78. See also legal considerations expectations attitude and, 91–92
customer, 96–97
of sale, 180
experience, confidence and, 83 expertise. See also technical skills data use and, 151
limitations of, 101
in medical field, 5–6
questions and, 129–31
explanation, of objections, 159–60

F

Facebook, 244–45, 246
false confidence, 84–85
FDA. See Food and Drug Administration fear
as motivation, 114
as objection, 164, 165
feasibility studies, decision making and, 16 feel-felt-found, 159–60 financial considerations, 221–33. See also income flexibility, 88–90

flirtatious behavior, 65
Food and Drug Administration, 18, 68, 247–48 friends, as customers, 52–64 frustration, as objection, 164, 166–67

G

gatekeepers, strategies for getting past, 211–19 goal setting, 4 government regulation, 18 gratitude, 90–91, 175–76 grooming, 30, 42–43
group meetings, 202–4
group purchase organization, as benefit, 201

H

habits, awareness of, 238–39 hair care, 43
hand shaking, 119–20
harassment, 65
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 70 healthcare professionals
account penetration and, 187–209
advocacy for, 33
ego and, 109–10
medical sales and, 15–17
self-interest of, 111–13
social networking and, 247–48
strategies for getting initial appointments with, 211–19 HIPAA. See Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act hospitals
account penetration and, 187–209
medical sales and, 15–17 hygiene, 30, 42–43

I

impatience, as objection, 164, 167 impressions, as stumbling block, 219 income
early expectations for, 20–21 as incentive, 6 potential for, 6–7, 103–4 information gathering. See questioning initiation, 4
insurance reimbursement, 17
as challenge, 222
integrity, 30, 72
intelligence, emotion and, 170 interest in medical sales, 5
as stumbling block, 219
Internet, 243–52
interpersonal skills, 1–3 inventory, as benefit, 202

Index

investments

- as challenge, 222
- into personal business, 239–41

J

- jewelry, body, 43–45
- job satisfaction, 23
- judgment skills, 96

K

- knowledge, confidence and, 82

L

- Law of Expectations, 180
- legal considerations. See also ethical considerations
 - defensive medicine and, 107
 - privacy and, 70–71
- letter writing, 216–17
- liability
 - reduction of, 17
 - risk management and, 23
- LinkedIn*, 243–44, 246, 248
- listening skills, 3–4, 98
- "little voice", selling to, 110–11
- logistical issues, 26
- logs, objection, 174–75
- loyalty, customer, 18–19

M

- medial assistants, as gatekeepers, 211
- Medicaid reimbursement, 17
- medical sales
 - as career, 1
 - healthcare vs. other forms of, 11–14
- Medical Sales 2.0, 243–52
- MedicalSalesTraining.com, 254
- Medicare reimbursement, 17
- medicine
 - as business, 17
 - defensive, 107
- meetings
 - account penetration and, 195–99
 - one-on-one vs. group, 202–4
- money. See income
- motivation, self-. See self-motivation
- multitasking, 22
- MySalesRep.com*, 250

N

- names, importance of learning, 99–101
- notes, 185, 217–18
- nurses. See healthcare professionals

O

- Obama, Barak, 82
- objections, handling of, 153–76
- office managers, as gatekeepers, 211
- one-on-one meetings, 202–4
- open-ended questions, 133–34
- operational budgets, 205–6
- organization affiliation, 65–66
- organizational skills, 4, 103
- outcomes
 - as benefit, 201
 - improvement of, 27
- outgoing personalities, 98

P

- pain
 - as motivation, 113–16, 123–25
 - questioning and, 134–36
- patients
 - advocacy for, 32–33
 - as central focus, 26–27
 - importance of, 69–72
- penetration strategies, 187–209
- personal conduct, 47–66
- personal integrity. See integrity
- personality traits, 1–3, 98
- personnel, account penetration and, 187–209
- PHI. See Protected Health Information
- physician assistants, as gatekeepers, 211, 218–19
- physicians. See healthcare professionals
- piercings, 43–45
- planning, importance of, 118–19
- practice standards, as motivation, 115
- preparation
 - account penetration and, 201
 - confidence and, 82–83
 - objections and, 175–76
- presentations
 - account penetration and, 204–5
 - closing and, 177–86
 - as conversation, 117–18, 121–23
 - data and, 150
 - establishing rapport and, 120–21
 - objections during, 153–76
 - opening skills for, 119–20
 - planning and, 118–19
 - presenting solutions during, 139–52
 - questions and, 127–38
 - visual aids and, 147–50
 - voice and, 118
- privacy considerations, 70–71
- probing, of objections, 158–59
- problem solving. See conflict resolution
- product evaluation committees, account penetration and, 190–91, 195–99, 204–5

Index

professional, defined, 25 professionalism competition and, 241–42
 honoring of, 33
 medical sales and, 19
 rules of, 25–36
profit, as motivation, 114–15 promises, 73–74
promotional material, social networking and, 247 pronunciation, 103
prospects. See customers Protected Health Information, 70–71

Q

questioning, as presentation skill, 127–38

R

rapport
 establishing, 120–21
 as stumbling block, 219
receptionists, as gatekeepers, 211, 217–18 record keeping contacts and, 199–200
 objections and, 174–75
redirection, of conversation, 131–32 referrals, 100, 215–16
reframing, objections and, 172–73 regulation considerations, 18
 social networking and, 247–48
reimbursement, 17 rejection, vs. objections, 155 relationship skills, 93, 95 relationships
 account penetration and, 191–92
 with customers, 51–52, 97 friends as customers and, 52–61
 importance of, 51
 romantic, 61–64
 top-down approach to, 212 reputation, as benefit, 202 resentment, as objection, 164, 165–66 respect, 32
responses, automatic, 109 responsibility, 77–78
risk, change and, 106
risk management, 23
 as benefit, 201
romantic relationships, 61–64

S

safety, as benefit, 201
salary. See income sales competitive nature of, 236
 as conversation, 117–18

 economic considerations and, 221–33
 future, 233
 identification with, 27–28 medical (see medical sales) motivation and, 113–16
 stumbling blocks to, 219
Sales Pilot Medical Sales Training, 254 sales skills, 93
salespeople, feelings surrounding, 105 satisfaction customer (see customer satisfaction) job (see job satisfaction) scheduling, 26
scientific data. See data secretaries, as gatekeepers, 211 self-confidence, 31, 79–86 self-interest benefit emphasis and, 140–41 identification of, 226–31 sales and, 111–13, 125
self-motivation, 30
seminars, account penetration and, 204–5 service delivery
 account penetration and, 205
 professionalism and, 33, 91 sexual harassment, 65
shyness, 98
skill sets, for medical sales, 3, 93–104. See also specific skills smiling, 86
smoking, 43
social networking, 243–52 speaking skills, 3, 86, 95
 voice and, 118
staff, as investment, 239–41
standards
 checklist of, 35–36
 as motivation, 115
 of professional behavior, 30–34 stories, use of, 145–47 strategies account penetration, 187–209 for getting initial appointment, 211–19 stress, 22

T

targeting, account penetration and, 204–5 tattoos, 43–45
teamwork, 32
technical skills, 93, 101–3. See also expertise technicians, as gatekeepers, 211 technology, 243–52
thank-you notes, 185
time, for closing, 184–85 time management, 22, 31

Index

top-down approach, to relationships, 212

trust

customers and, 96

as objection, 164, 167

truth

disclosure and, 76–77

importance of, 74–76

Twitter, 246

U

unemployment, as challenge, 222

V

value added services

account penetration and, 205

as stumbling block, 219

verbal skills. See speaking skills visual aids, 147–50

voice, 118

W

WIIFM/P. See self-interest work environment, 21–22

work habits, awareness of, 238–39